

NAFLION - 17.4.2024

On April 17, the awards for the cultural exchange between Greece and the USA took place, with the visit of the First Lady of Maryland-USA, Yumi Hogan to the exhibition of Mina Papatheodorou-Valyrakis at the Museum of the Vassilis Papantoniou Foundation-IBP (former Peloponnesian Folklore Foundation) in Nafplio and the Members of the Board of the National Museum of Women in the Arts (NMWA) in Washington DC.

"Yumi Hogan, painter - First Lady of Maryland-USA, with whom we exhibited together in 2022 in America and in 2019 in Greece, visited my exhibition in Nafplio together with members of the board of the National Museum of Women in the Arts Washington DC", Mina Papatheodorou-Valyrakis told us.

The awards for the cultural exchange and friendship of the two artists Mina and Yumi Hogan, as well as the cooperation and friendship of the two museums, for the promotion of cultural exchanges between Greece and the USA, were presented to the IBP Museum - Basil Papantoniou Foundation.

The board members of the National Museum of Women in the Arts, Senator Mary Mochary, Dr Annita Auback and the patron and restorer of the iconic Washington Museum, Climis Laskaris, received the awards from the President of the IBP Ms Georgia Samaras.

In front of the iconic Bourtzi project